TALK ABOUT TERI and practice "has to..." and "have to..."

Teri is a very good footballer. She has to train hard to play well. She is also a very good student. She has to study to get good marks.

She has to ...
(It is necessary)

- ... train two hours every day.
- ... get up at 7 o'clock.
- ... eat good food to keep strong.
- ... sleep well.
- ... study hard for her exams.

She doesn't have to ...
(It's not necessary.)

- ... get up 6 o'clock.
- ... travel far to get to the stadium.

Now you make sentences about yourself. What do you have to do...

- to get good marks?
- to stay strong and healthy?
- to play your favourite sport well?
- to help your mother and father at home?
- in the the morning before you go to school?

Practice sentences with HAS TO and DOESN'T HAVE TO using these professions:

doctor

magician

acrobat

teacher

artist

1. A magician has to
2. An acrobat has to
3. A doctor doesn't have to
4. A teacher has to
5. An artist doesn't have to
6. A magician doesn't have to
7. An acrobat doesn't have to
8. A doctor has to

You can use these ideas.
